3. Show Selection

NH explains that he and MP have sat on the Show Selection Panel for Lent term's season. Notable differences from a typical round were: a) the unavailability of the Corpus Playroom for applications pending approval from Corpus Christi College (who own the venue); b) the recently announced national lockdown, which caused the panel to extend the process by one weekend to give cancelled shows the chance to repitch. NH draws the committee's attention to some "tea" - his mentioning thereof causing BK to take a swig of red wine. IW voices disapproval at the behaviour of a rival society when this is referenced, and knits passive-aggressively.

Among the successfully repitched shows were Sleeping Beauty (programmed in the two week Lent Term Musical slot) and No Quarter, both of which CUADC are committed to funding.

NH and MP take the rest of committee through the remaining shows. After some (read: much) discussion it is decided to fund Such Entanglements and Carnage, the week 2 ADC Lateshow.
